Bidding a fond farewell to two beloved restaurants

In the wake of their departure, our community stands together in support of these beloved establishments. We reminisce about the delectable meals and the warm ambiance that made Seeds Italian Bistro and Growler Cafe truly special.

Though their doors may have closed, the spirit of these restaurants lives on in the hearts of all who had the pleasure of dining there. The familiar faces of the staff, the clinking of glasses, and the savory aromas that filled the air will forever be etched in our memories.

As we reflect on the past, we also look towards the future. Our town is a resilient one, and we are confident that new culinary ventures will rise to fill the void left by Seeds Italian Bistro and Growler Cafe. The vibrant food scene that they helped cultivate will continue to thrive, with new flavors and experiences awaiting us.

In the meantime, let us cherish the moments we shared at these cherished establishments. Let us raise a glass to the chefs, the servers, and all those who made our dining experiences truly exceptional. And let us remember that even though these restaurants may no longer be physically present, their impact on our community will endure.

So here's to Seeds Italian Bistro and Growler Cafe - thank you for the incredible moments and flavors you shared with us. You will always have a special place in our hearts.

As the sun graces us with its warmth, indulging in outdoor dining becomes an absolute necessity. Within the vibrant streets of downtown Lebanon, a plethora of dining options awaits, allowing you to savor delicious food while basking in the sun's rays.

For those seeking a lively atmosphere, Conversation Brewing boasts ample outdoor seating, perfect for accommodating larger groups. The Cellar, Hazella Bake Shop, Kristi's 50's cafe, and Bloom Boutique and Tea House, on the other hand, offer a more serene setting with limited seating, ideal for those seeking a quiet retreat.

If you fancy a cup of joe accompanied by fresh air, Mugs Coffee Shop entices with its outdoor covered seating area, providing a cozy and sheltered space to enjoy your favorite brew.
